

John Hooper Masonic Memorial Scholarship

John Hooper, a Danville native and member of Franklin Masonic Lodge, recognized the need to help provide higher-education funding for hard-working students who have faced and overcome personal and academic challenges. This scholarship was established in his memory and seeks to fill part of the need he recognized.

Purpose of Scholarship

Students with demonstrated financial need and who have faced personal or academic challenges are given highest priority for this scholarship.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- Be a graduating senior of a high school located in Boyle County.
- Plan to pursue an advanced degree or certificate as a full-time student.
- Be accepted and plan to attend a college, community college, technical school or university in Kentucky.
- Have a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or better during high school.

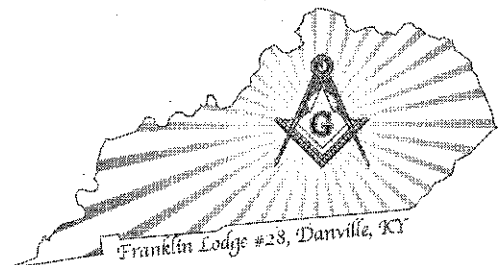

Application Package

- The attached application form.
- High school transcript.
- Acceptance letter from the college, community college, technical school or university in Kentucky that the applicant plans to attend.
- A copy of your Student Aid Report, which is provided after filling out the FAFSA or other evidence of your Estimated Family Contribution.
 - If such a report is not available, contact the scholarship committee.
- A 500-750 word essay describing how you have overcome a particular personal or academic challenge and how that experience impacts how you will approach higher education.
- Two letters of reference, at least one should be from a teacher or academic mentor.
 - These may be submitted in sealed envelopes, signed across the seal by the writer or may be submitted directly to the committee by mail or email (senders address should be a school, government, or business account).
